

Beck Study Abroad Scholarship Deadline: Monday, February 27, 2017

The Beck Study Abroad Scholarship was established to support Sociology Majors studying outside the United States through one of UGA's study abroad programs. It is named in recognition of Dr. E. M. Beck, a long-time faculty member, former Head of the Sociology Department, and enthusiastic advocate of study abroad.

The scholarship provides $500 to support Sociology Majors who will be participating in one of UGA's study abroad programs. Priority will be given to students with limited financial resources and solid academic records who will be taking sociology courses abroad. Students who have received this award remain eligible but will be given a lower priority if there are other meritorious applicants.

If you wish to apply for this scholarship, then complete the following two forms and return them as paper (not electronic attachments) to Dr. James Coverdill, the Sociology Undergraduate Coordinator, at jimcov@uga.edu:

- 1) This form (i.e., provide the information below).
- 2) The financial aid information release form (http://www.uga.edu/osfa/forms/153.pdf
